

GARY SCHROEDER

EXECUTIVE PARTNER

Gary is currently an Executive Partner with Magellan Executive Partners. Gary previously worked as a Strategic Partner of Magellan as our Exit and Acquisition Expert. Together, Transworld and Magellan developed the PREPARE program, which helps business owners maximize the value of their business at sale or other transition. Also previously as Executive Vice President at Magellan Executive Partners, Gary connected our clients with the Employee, Leadership & Executive Development programs that we've developed over the last 18 years. These unique programs can improve the culture and productivity of an organization in short order while reducing stress on the leadership.

With over 30 years of business transactions experience Gary is also President of Transworld Business Advisors' OKC based office. As a part of the largest transaction brokerage in the world, Gary assists business owners in the confidential sale of their business.

He also assists entrepreneurs with finding great opportunities for business ownership by buying existing businesses or franchises.

Outside of his business interests, Gary has been an avid recreational sports enthusiast enjoying racket sports, volleyball, and skiing. Lately he's found a new passion playing Pickleball, the country's fastest growing sport, especially among 'people of a certain age'. Gary and his wife Brenda live in Edmond where they love seeing their five children and five grandchildren who are the fifth and sixth generations of Schroeders that have made their home in Oklahoma.
