

Gary Schroeder

Magellan Executive Partners – Strategic Partner

Gary Schroeder is a Transworld Business Advisors Exit & Acquisition Expert and a Strategic Partner of Magellan. Together, Transworld and Magellan developed the PREPARE program, which helps business owners maximize the value of their business at sale or other transition. Over 30 years of business transactions culminated in Gary Schroeder joining Transworld Business Advisors as President of the OKC based office. As a part of the largest transaction brokerage in the world, Gary assists business owners in the confidential sale of their business.

He also assists entrepreneurs with finding great opportunities of business ownership by buying existing businesses or franchises. Transworld Business Advisors has assisted thousands of owners with the sale of their business across the country and throughout Oklahoma. Every year, 25% of businesses contemplate a change of ownership due to various reasons: retirement, relocation, family illness, etc.

As a business broker, Transworld provides services relating to the following:

- Valuation
- Business Sales & Marketing
- Franchise Sales & Development
- Mergers & Acquisitions
- Asset Sales
- Financial Assessment
- Strategic Partnership Alignment
- SEO & Social Media Optimization
- Vendor Relations & Contract Negotiations

Outside of his business interests, Gary has been an avid recreational sports enthusiast enjoying racket sports, volleyball, and skiing. Lately he's found a new passion playing Pickleball, the country's fastest growing sport, especially among 'people of a certain age'. Gary and his wife Brenda live just outside of OKC where they love seeing their five children and two grandchildren who are the fifth and sixth generations of Schroeder's. They have also made their home in Oklahoma.
