

JEFF RONEN

MAGELLAN EXECUTIVE PARTNERS - Advisory Board Member

Jeff Ronen began his banking career at the age of 16 in his hometown bank in Meade, KS, a southwest Kansas town of 1,800 people, located 20 miles north of the Oklahoma state line. Over the course of the next 40+ years, he performed practically every job that can be done in a bank, from Custodian to Teller to Proof Operator to Loan Officer to Senior Lending Officer to Community Bank President and now Executive Officer for a $2 Billion multi-state banking organization. In addition, during his diverse career, Jeff has also been a business owner himself and also served as an executive officer of a private business outside of banking.

In early 2001, Ronen purchased his own small business, which grew to annual sales of over $1.6 million and 60 employees. Jeff and his wife, Michelle, owned and operated four Subway restaurants for approximately 5 years. During the term of their ownership, their top store ranked #1 or #2 in gross sales in the State of Kansas, and they also achieved and maintained "Model Store" designation by Subway corporate. The Ronens sold their stores in late 2005 to one of the largest Subway franchisees in the United States.

Leadership History:

- President at Fidelity Bank
- Senior VP Capital Development
- President/Owner Ronen Enterprise

Ronen's educational background includes a degree in Finance earned at Kansas State University in 1984. While at K-State, he was listed on the Dean's Honor Roll for four years. Also, in 1989, he completed the graduation requirements of the 3-year program of work at the Graduate School of Banking at the University of Wisconsin, finishing as one of the youngest graduates in his class. Imagines the possibilities; delivers the results.

Jeff and Michelle Ronen have three grown children and two grandchildren and make their home in northeast Wichita.
