

KEVIN GROSS

EXECUTIVE PARTNER

Kevin Gross, LFACHE, most recently served as regional president of Hillcrest HealthCare System (HHS), which includes eight hospitals and a network of clinics in northeastern Oklahoma. The system employs 6,000 staff members and more than 400 health care providers.

Kevin was recently appointed to the Tulsa Community College Board of Regents by Oklahoma Governor J. Kevin Stitt. He has served on numerous boards as chairman of the Oklahoma State Chamber and chairman of the Tulsa Regional Chamber. He was also chairman of the Oklahoma Hospital Association and served on the Oklahoma Department of Corrections for six years, including three as chair.

Kevin has more than 40 years of experience working in all sectors of the hospital industry. He previously served as senior vice president for hospital operations for RehabCare Group Inc. and has also served as president of Hospital Corporation of America (HCA) Healthcare's Midwest division.

This experience, as well as the knowledge acquired while serving on multiple boards, helps him have a strong overall view of economic, financial, and business success.

Kevin excels at ambitious and strategic thinking while mentoring leaders and creating strong teams. He is thoughtful in analyzing issues and forming successful plans to solve business challenges and close deals.

Kevin earned his bachelor's degree in biomedical engineering from Northwestern University in Evanston, IL, and a master's in business administration from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia. He is a lifetime fellow in the American College of Healthcare Executives.
