

KRISTIN PECK

EXECUTIVE PARTNER

In 2025, Kristin launched Metam Communications, a strategic communications consulting firm in Oklahoma. With a profound passion for helping both companies and individuals thrive, Kristin believes the true nexus of organizational success lies in the convergence of strategy, communications, and talent. Her firm specializes in developing each of these to their full potential, creating a powerful synergy leading to impactful, sustainable growth.

She currently also serves as Vice President of Government and Public Affairs for Rausch Companies, a private holding company with businesses in the real estate, private equity, and energy sectors spanning multiple states. Prior to Rausch Companies, Kristin served 22 years at Cox Communications, most recently as a member of the leadership team overseeing a six-state geographic footprint with 1.2 million customers and 4,000 employees.

Throughout her career, Kristin has been passionate about community engagement and has served in several leadership roles for non-profit and civic organizations, including chair of the State Chamber of Oklahoma board of directors and co-chair of the Oklahoma City Chamber of Commerce TRDC Campaign. She is a member of Leadership Oklahoma's Class 27.

She and her husband Jon have been married for more than 30 years and have two sons. In her spare time, she is usually with family and friends, likely enjoying the outdoors. She loves art, travel, sunshine, and the people in every part of her life.
