

ROD BEELER

Magellan Executive Partners – EXECUTIVE PARTNER

A truly global executive, Rod has lived and worked all over the world. He brings those experiences to clients in a way that is meaningful, helpful, and specific to them. Rod has deep experience working with startups, growth businesses, acquisitions, family businesses, and a Fortune 100 corporation. That broad experience puts Rod in a position to not only honor the unique aspects of businesses and industries, but also find common elements from his experiences to help build businesses. Has successfully led large global companies as well as small and medium sized private firms in various industrial sectors. Strong experience serving on Boards as well as leading the operations of companies.

Rod is focused on helping develop and implement differentiating comprehensive strategies that are sustainable across business cycles. It is key that employees and other key stakeholders are highly engaged in the understanding and implementation of those strategies. Strategy is important, but the implementation plan is key to success.

Having a passion for helping people develop their skills and experiences to meet or exceed their personal goals, Rod has proven to be an effective coach and partner for Senior Executives and CEO's. His proven track record of implementing the necessary rigor to drive growth and cost management while maintaining very high employee engagement. He creates a collaborative environment across organizations and dedicated to maintaining a reputation built on quality, service, and uncompromising ethics.

Rod has been married to his wonderful wife, Tamara, for over 40 years. They have two daughters who are both married. And they have blessed them with three grandchildren. Rod enjoys sports, whether participating, watching, or discussing. He plays tennis, golf, downhill ski, and hike.
