

WESLEY SCHROEDER

Magellan Executive Partners – CHIEF STRATEGY OFFICER

As the Chief Strategy Officer with Magellan, Wes loves helping organizations grow. A self-professed “strategy nerd” Wes loves helping companies find new ways to grow through the methodical implementation of Magellan's growth frameworks. He is also an expert on helping train companies to grow themselves, while coaching executives on how to grow as people.

Wes holds an MBA with focus areas of Strategy and Corporate Finance from the Tepper School of Business at Carnegie Mellon University in Pittsburgh; and a Bachelors Degree with majors of Marketing and Economics from Oklahoma State University. Wes lives in Edmond, Oklahoma with his wife, son, daughter, and three rescue dogs. He is a full-on foodie and enjoys cooking classic French and Italian cuisine in his free time. He is also an avid follower of all things global finance, chess and Thunder basketball.

Wes' leadership style is guided by respect for people and commitment to identifying, valuing and cultivating individual strengths. His belief that you are only as strong as your team has made him a very successful CEO as well as a mentor to many of his peers. In addition to Wes' years of experience in various roles across the US, Wes worked in Europe for 8 years. This helped him attain an international mindset and a talent for global strategy as well as the ability to identify and cater to the bigger picture while being mindful of different cultures and perspectives.

Current Roles:
